

PANTHERS WIN FROM STANFORD, SCORE 16 TO 7

Visiting Eastern Team Outclasses Cardinals Throughout Game; Defense Good

STADIUM STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 30.—The Panther football team from the University of Pittsburgh had little trouble in defeating Stanford University, 16 to 7, here today in the second east-west game of the season. The visitors outclassed the Cardinals throughout the game and except for a few minutes during the last period, were on the offensive.

Only a vicious Stanford defensive prevented the score from being higher.

Here's the Answer

The changeable weather of Autumn gives rise to a knotty problem of dressing for comfort and health. Most folks lean toward the warmer periods—that's why colds are so prevalent when the thermometer drops and the raw winds blow.

that all of us make New Year resolutions to stop doing something.

Now, let's get busy and resolve to DO something—something that is a pleasure and will mean additional contentment. For example, make arrangements for a new home of your own or decide to remodel your old home, incorporating hardwood floors, built-in accommodations and many other modern time and labor saving features.

similar to that worn by the Ku Klux Klan—the state klansmen are sending investigators into Morehouse to report on the affair.

If the clan as a whole is guilty, its charter will be revoked; if individual members are implicated they would be left by their fellow klansmen to the fate they deserve, according to the edict of chiefs who met in New Orleans yesterday.

Meanwhile reports are in circulation that the membership of the Morehouse clan is dwindling through resignations of those, it is said, who do not want the notoriety that might follow revelations at the open hearings. Many are understood to be influenced by their families who fear that the innocent as well as the guilty may be made to suffer.

Some friends of Dr. B. M. McKoin, former mayor of Mer Rouge, who is under murder charges at Baltimore, have advised not to fight extradition but to return to Louisiana, as they are certain he will be vindicated. In the meanwhile, they are proceeding with the accumulation of the fund to pay for his defense.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 30.—Efforts are being made by H. H. Thom of Bessmer, Ala., brother of Dr. K. P. Thom, who is alleged to have been killed by Dr. B. M. McKoin, former mayor of Mer Rouge, La., at Gallion, La., in 1916, to enlist the aid of Governor Parker of Louisiana in having an indictment returned against McKoin charging him with this murder.

Mr. Thom said tonight he wrote to Governor Parker Wednesday giving the details of the killing of his brother and asked the governor to cause a grand jury investigation of the affair. He said he had not received a reply from the Louisiana executive.

company. He also was a member of the emergency construction committee.

Clair Foster, reported to live in Canada, and formerly associated with the Thompson-Starrett and the George A. Fuller companies and also with the emergency construction committee.

John H. McGibbons, of Baltimore and Chicago, said to have represented a bonding company issuing bonds for contractors and associated during the war with the construction committee.

James A. Mears, of Boston, and Springfield, Mass., former general manager of Fred T. Ley and company Inc., general contractors to whom the first contract for construction of a national army cantonment was awarded. He was secretary to the construction committee in the war department during the war. The indictment was the first of its kind to be returned as a result of investigations of war frauds cases instituted by Attorney General Daugherty. Others are expected to follow completion of the presentation of evidence by department of justice agents which is said to be rapidly approaching the stage required for jury consideration.

After identifying the defendants, the indictment recited at length the emergency situation brought about by the war and stress under which the government labored, particularly emphasizing the importance to the

TREASURY GIVES ITS SUPPORT TO CAPPER MEASURE

Takes Opposite Side From Hoover and Wallace Who Advocate Rival Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The endorsement and support of the treasury department was given today to the Capper agricultural credits bill, as against the principal rival, the Anderson-Lenroot credits measure, which recently was introduced into the senate and house with the backing of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and other government officials.

Secretary Mellon in testimony presented at closing hearings today of the senate banking committee on farm credits legislation and in a letter sent to Senator McLean of Connecticut, the committee chairman came out in support of the Capper bill, with minor modification and with an amendment to extend for nine months after next June 30, the farm loan powers of the War Finance Corporation.

Support was given the Anderson-Lenroot bill on the other hand, by Secretary Wallace and Hoover, also appearing before the committee behind closed doors. Secretary Wallace was understood to have urged the committee to report the Anderson-Lenroot bill on the ground that it was more nearly adequate to the needs of the farmer than the Capper bill. Mr. Hoover, whose testimony was said to have related more generally to the need of agricultural credit than to details of its extension, appeared to favor the Anderson-Lenroot measure, which would set up farm credits departments in the existing federal land banks with an authorized government-furnished capitalization of $60,000,000 for the 12 banks.

With the views of the three cabinet members before it, the committee prepared to draft legislation which will harmonize the widely conflicting opinions held by its members and by the members of congress generally as to the form of aid to be extended the farmers and livestock growers of the country.

Each of the seven defendants, the indictment asserted, "conceived the fraudulent scheme and plan of getting control for their own gain, profit and benefit, and for the gain, profit and benefit of their past and future clients and employers and their friends, of the administration of the immense emergency construction program of the United States during the war, including the determination of the policy to be followed the form of contract grossly, unconsciously and fraudulently favorable to the contractors in a like manner and to the same extent unfavorable to the United States."

The indictment recited the names of numerous army officers who, it said, were deceived, misled and over-ridden by the defendants, causing great waste of money appropriated by congress and unjustifiable profits to the defendants and their associates.

SOVIET MAKES PLEA

quest and intervention toward Turkey. Happily, the soviet's advent to power in Russia had saved Turkey from total disintegration. Unhappily, however, at Lausanne, according to the memorandum, the great powers continue their old policy of domination and expansion and seek to settle the straits problem so that it can be used as a basis of attack against the Black Sea countries.

The memorandum warmly takes sides with Turkey in her struggle for sovereign freedom and insists that imperialistic nations must cease to consider Moslems as inferiors. In behalf of the Moscow government, Tchitcherin recommends the calling of a special conference to examine into the status of the minorities of all countries and declares that the only way to establish peace in the valley of the Danube and in the Balkans is the formation of a federation by the peoples of those regions, each state retaining its autonomy.

Today's developments brought no appreciable change in the delicate position of the Lausanne conference. Optimists found hope in the fact that the Turks have agreed to meet the British experts and discuss the Mosul frontier and in the announcement that further progress had been made in the solution of the straits problem. But it is generally admitted that no change for the better or worse can come until Ismet Pasha has heard from Ankara and until the trend of the Paris reparations conference can be noted.

The American plan for an Armenian national home was a feature of the day's session.

Mexican Congress Works Overtime to Clear Up Measures

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Both branches of congress planned to work until midnight tonight to complete pending legislation before the regular session expires.

Party leaders were agreed today that the measure providing for establishment of a bank of emission, as submitted earlier in the week by a special committee would be adopted, making inauguration of the institution possible by the first of February.

The bill designates it as the sole bank of emission with the name Bank of Mexico. The government will hold fifty one per cent of the stock. The initial capital is fixed at 50,000,000 pesos.

The chairman of the board of directors at all times is to be the secretary of the treasury.

Article 27 of the Mexican constitution, dealing with the retroactivity of oil leases, will not be modified at the present session party leaders reiterated today.

THREE MISSING IN FIRE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 30.—Fire caused a quarter of a million dollars damage at New York avenue and the Board Walk today. Three persons were reported missing tonight and three firemen were slightly injured. Four girls, cabaret singers in one of the buildings destroyed, were carried down ladders to safety.

A Delightful Row

"My wife had suffered from stomach and liver trouble for many years and had taken medicine enough to sink a ship; so when I brought home a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy, on the advice of my employer, she refused to take it. Her liver trouble hadn't helped her disposition any. We had a big row but she took it the next week. Her ailments have all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Printing an Art,
Not a Trade

There is all the difference in the world between an artistic bit of printing and a job that looks as if it were thrown together by an apprentice or a printer in the throes of the "morning after."

A real printer is an artist, who takes the different faces of type and produces a letterhead, New Year's card, or announcement that is a work of art. It is surprising what can be done with different colors of card, board, bond paper and inks in the right combinations.
